

Who would you like to get to KNOW?

Over the years, we've profiled some really outstanding GAE members. We've talked to a history-teaching retired Army Colonel (who inspires his students by donning period costumes), the Annie Hutchinson GAE ESP of the Year, a National Board Certified teacher, the Director of Kennesaw State University's Teacher Resource and Activity Center (TRAC), Dalton Association Vice President and master chef, and a Middle School Teacher of the Year. We've even captured the head bee (GAE Spelling Bee Chairman, Richard McIntyre, that is) for an interview. Our list of colorful characters and amazing educators goes on and on.

Now you have the chance to tell us who you'd like to get to know better. Do you have a colleague* who inspires you? Is there leader in your local association who really shines? Do you know a GAE member with a special talent or interest? Do you know an educator who works really hard every day to make a difference in Georgia public education? Tell us.

This is your chance to introduce one outstanding GAE member to 40,000 GAE members across the state.

So who will it be?

WHO TO NOMINATE.

You can nominate any public educator who is a current member of the Georgia Association of Educators. (Think administrators, paraprofessionals, teachers, coaches, school social workers, cafeteria staff, bus drivers, etc.) If you're a current GAE member and a public educator, you're fair game. Don't be shy. You can even nominate yourself.

HOW TO NOMINATE.

- 1. Tell us who. Send in the name of the person you'd like to see profiled. Remember: To be selected, a nominee must be a current member of GAE in good standing.
- 2. Tell us why. In a brief statement (up to 250 words) share why you think this person would make a great Person to KNOW.
- 3. Tell us where. Be sure to include the name of the school and location of your Person to KNOW-to-be. Also, include the name of his/her local association.
